

AOHP NATIONAL BYLAWS

ARTICLE I: NAME

Section One

The name of the organization shall be the Association of Occupational Health Professionals in Healthcare (AOHP); an association dedicated to promoting the health and safety of workers in healthcare.

Section Two

The name of the organization shall henceforth be referred to as the "Association."

ARTICLE II: DEFINITION

Section One

The interests of the Association are such that it shall be composed of professionals who are or have been actively involved in the provision of occupational health services in healthcare settings and who are striving for the improvement and strengthening of these services in order to benefit the employee, the healthcare organization, and the professional.

Section Two: Organization of the Association

The Association is organized exclusively for charitable, scientific, and educational purposes as a not-for-profit organization. It shall be so conducted that no part of its income and earnings shall in turn benefit any member, director, officer, or other individual. Upon dissolution, any assets of the national Association shall be distributed among the remaining chapters.

ARTICLE III: MISSION

Section One: Mission

The Association is dedicated to promoting the health and safety of workers in healthcare. This is accomplished through:

- Advocating for employee health and safety
- Occupational health education and networking opportunities
- Hhealth and safety advancement through best practice and research
- Partnering with employers, regulatory agencies and related associations

ARTICLE IV: MEMBERSHIP

Section One: Types of Membership

The members in the Association shall consist of active, student, honorary and retired members.

- A. ACTIVE member (voting) - An individual whose dues are current and is actively involved in the specialty of occupational health practice and/or other related practices in healthcare settings. Active members are eligible to hold office and serve on and/or chair committees as described in the Executive Board Manual (EBM) job descriptions.
- B. Other ACTIVE member (voting), an individual whose dues are current but is not actively involved in the specialty of occupational health practice and/or other related practices in healthcare settings. Other Active voting members may be eligible to serve on or chair committees and or hold certain offices, as described in the EBM Job descriptions. Other Active membership is not limited to the medical or nursing disciplines.
- C. STUDENT member (nonvoting) - An individual who is a student during the membership year and who is enrolled as a part-time/full-time student in a program of study related to occupational health. Student members may serve on committees.
- D. HONORARY member (nonvoting) - Honorary membership shall be conferred by the executive board of directors upon individuals in recognition of their contribution to the field of occupational health in healthcare settings and such membership shall be effective for one year. Such members may serve the Association in any manner mutually agreeable to themselves and the board, but they may not vote or hold office. No more than five (5) honorary memberships shall be conferred in any one year.
- E. RETIRED member (non-voting) - An individual who retired from the field of occupational health in healthcare. The person must have held active membership in the Association at some point during his/her professional career. Retired members may serve on committees, but they may not vote or hold office.

Section Two: Change in Types of Memberships

A member who changes eligibility status shall retain Association membership during the full term for which dues have been paid. The member shall then change the type of membership to the appropriate category.

Section Three: Transfer of Membership

As the membership is a personal membership in the Association, the individual may only transfer his/her membership to another person if an institution pays for the membership.

Section Four: Voting

- A. Eligibility to vote: Only active members shall have the right to vote. The Association shall ensure that all voters are eligible and that all votes are valid and confidential.
- B. Active members shall be given the opportunity to cast their vote electronically (includes fax and online voting options.)
- C. Majority: Except as otherwise specified herein, all matters shall be settled by a majority of valid votes returned or a majority of members voting in assembly, as the case may be.
- D. A quorum for voting shall consist of no less than 10 percent of the total eligible voting membership of the Association or chapter based upon the number of members established as of December 31 of the preceding calendar year.
